

I believe that the FCC needs to make it fully clear that provision of inferior quality of captioning is discriminatory and exclusionary. The FCC are required to be clearly that full access to television for all Deaf and Hard of Hearing viewers must be a top priority.